Timeliness

- It is a big help to the musicians and other audience members to be on time.
- You should know that the doors close when the concert begins; late arrivals are then seated only between musical selections.
- Please remember to use restrooms and water fountains before concert begins and at intermission.

Respectful Behavior

Your neighbors in the audience will appreciate your remaining quiet during performances. And remember that a cell phone call can also disturb others. You may applaud when the conductor turns to audience and indicates a selection is over.
